

Gc
977.701
J630
1918-1919

Gc
977.701
J630
1918-1919
1524728

GENEALOGY COLLECTION

ALLEN COUNTY PUBLIC LIBRARY

3 1833 01084 6951

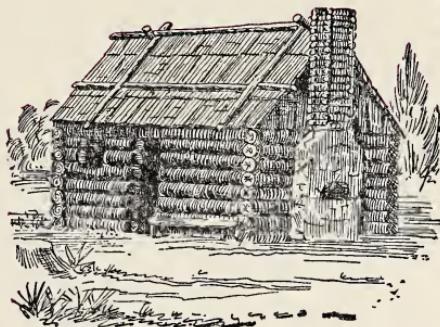

GC
977.
J63
1918
1524

Digitized by the Internet Archive in 2013

Gc
977
J63
191
152

YEAR BOOK OF THE
OLD SETTLERS' ASSOCIATION

JOHNSON COUNTY, IOWA

1918-1919

Gc
977
J63
191
152

1524728

OFFICERS OF OLD SETTLERS' ASSOCIATION

1919

President.....	WALTER M. DAVIS
First Vice-President.....	W. E. C. FOSTER
Second Vice-President	JOHN L. ADAMS
Secretary	HENRY WIENEKE
Treasurer.....	O. A. BYINGTON
Necrologist.....	MRS. G. R. IRISH

Executive Committee

ISAAC B. LEE	JOSEPH L. WALKER
E. FENTON	J. J. METZGER
J. J. ENGLERT	JOHN MCCOLLISTER

Editor Year Book, O. A. BYINGTON

AN APOLOGY

The editor of the Annual feels like offering an apology to the members of the Old Settlers of Johnson County for the contents of the year book for 1918-1919.

Several interesting articles were promised to be contributed and the editor relied upon their contribution and when disappointed was unable to secure other contributions.

As a result we were compelled to hastily gather such material as was at hand, and do the best we could under the circumstances. We realize that this issue of the Year Book does not contain much of local historical value.

THE OLD SETTLERS' ASSOCIATION OF JOHNSON COUNTY, IOWA

ANNUAL MEETING OF 1918

The annual reunion of the Old Settlers of Johnson County was held on August 20th, 1918, at the City Park. A pleasant day brought out a fair sized crowd. There were many expressions of approval of the log cabins recently removed to the park. The picnic dinner was participated in by a large crowd, all the tables being filled.

At one o'clock President Remley called the meeting to order and gave a very fine preliminary talk, after introducing Rev. Paul E. Heisey, who gave the invocation. Addresses were made by Hon. W. O. Coast and Jacob George.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Walter M. Davis; First Vice-President, W. E. C. Foster; Second Vice-President, John L. Adams; Secretary, Henry Wieneke; Treasurer, O. A. Byington; Necrologist, Mrs. G. R. Irish.

Eighty-two members paid dues. The dues and collections amounted to $43.25.

REPORT OF RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES

Cash on hand	$ 8.40
Subscriptions for moving cabins.....	109.50
Collections	8.00
Sale of old stoves.....	8.50
Coffee left over.....	.50

Donations at picnic	43.25
Collections	6.75
	<hr/>
Total Receipts, $184.90

EXPENDITURES

W. C. Mott, moving cabins.....	$102.50
Mercer Transfer, moving curios.....	2.00
W. C. Mott, building oven, and materials	24.55
Drayage50
Coffee	2.00
Ice, Postal Cards, Etc.....	1.27
Cash Expenditure, Items.....	11.00
Balance88
	<hr/>
Total, $184.90

NOTES ON THE OLD SETTLERS' ASSOCIATION

By THE EDITOR

It is well known by those familiar with the history of Johnson County that the first permanent settlement of the County was made by Philip Clark in the spring of 1836. It was just thirty years after the first settlement of this County by a white man that the residents made the first move to organize an association of Old Settlers.

The records show that the first meeting held for that purpose was called to order, and presided over, by David Switzer in the council chamber in Iowa City, on February 22nd, 1866. The committee to draft a constitution was composed of Samuel H. McCrory, T. S. Parvin, and E. W. Lucas. A committee of one from each township was appointed, in the list of which we find such well known pioneers as J. K. Strawbridge, W. B. Ford, Henry Felkner, Charles W. McCune, David Wray, Benjamin Swisher, and George Paul.

The preliminary statements of the Constitution referred to the fact that "the old settlers are rapidly passing away." One of the duties of the President was to "preserve order." All persons who had been residents of the County for twenty years were eligible for membership.

Article 13 of the Constitution of the Association provided that "whenever practicable, the members of the association shall attend in a body the funeral of any deceased member; and, as a token of respect, shall wear the usual badge of mourning."

At a meeting held on June 2nd, 1866, it was determined to hold a "festival" on the 21st day of June, and it was made the duty of every member of the Association "to give information of this contemplated anniversary festival, and induce all old settlers in Johnson County to become members and attend the same with their families."

At the preliminary meeting a large number of committees were appointed for various purposes. Among others was a committee to erect tables and speakers' stand, to receive provisions, to procure dishes, to provide music, to furnish water and refreshments and to procure speakers. On these committees we find the names of some of the most prominent pioneers of the County. Colonel Trowbridge was chairman of the committee to receive provisions, John P. Irish was on the committee to secure dishes, and Robert Hutchinson was chairman of the committee to provide music.

The "festival" was held in the grove at the east end of College Street, near the present site of Woodlawn, and the address was given by Smiley H. Bonham.

At a business meeting of the Association, in 1867, a resolution was adopted, thanking the Old Settlers' Association of Scott County for "a beautifully executed photograph of all the members of the Old Settlers Association of Scott County," and a committee was appointed to ascertain the cost of a similar photograph of the Old Settlers of the Johnson County Association.

After the first annual festival in 1866, aside from the holding of some meetings of committees, there were no activities until 1870. Several preliminary meetings were held arranging for a reunion and basket dinner to be held on July 4th, 1870. Again we find the appointment of a very large number of committees, on which are the names of many prominent pioneers. The picnic was held near the Cyrus Sanders homestead, about three-fourths of a mile south of Iowa City. The oration was delivered by L. B.

Paterson, for many years a prominent lawyer of Iowa City, and the Declaration of Independence was read by H. W. Lathrop.

For thirteen years the Association was allowed to lapse, and we find no record of any activities until the fall of 1883. An annual reunion was held in October of that year at Ham's Hall in Iowa City, and the record shows that "several hundred were present." Addresses were delivered by Governor Kirkwood and Suel Foster. A poem was read by Samuel Magill.

The annual reunion of 1884 was held in the grove near the residence of Sylvanus Johnson. Addresses were made by Colonel Trowbridge, A. E. Swisher, and others.

In 1885 a rather elaborate celebration was held in the same grove. A procession of fifty carriages and wagons formed at the city park and drove to the grounds. In the first carriage was Philip Clark, the first settler, and Wilbur D. Cannon, thought to be the first white man born in the County. The address was given by Euclid Sanders.

The reunion of 1886 was held on the same ground, the principal address being given by Charles W. Irish. At this meeting Philip Clark, very aged and infirm, made a few remarks concerning pioneer days.

In 1887 began the custom of holding the Association meetings at the Fair Grounds, east of the city. At the reunion of that year the principal addresses were given by Congressman Jerry Murphy and G. R. Irish.

About this time Henry Wieneke began to agitate the plan of building a log cabin of pioneer type on the Fair Grounds, to be mud-plastered, with puncheon floor, and to be constructed, as in pioneer times, without nails. At the reunion of 1888, held August 16th of that year, the log cabin proposition proved very popular and a committee was appointed to work out a plan. The address was given by C. F. Lovelace and an original poem by H. W. Lathrop was read. At this meeting there was shown a total enrollment in the Association, up to that date, of four hundred and forty-eight.

The annual reunion for 1889 was held at the Fair Grounds on August 21st. The interest aroused by the proposed log cabin brought forth a large crowd of Old Settlers. Philip Clark, the original settler of the County, was present. A poem by Father Magill was read and the address of the day was given by H. W. Lathrop.

On Saturday, September 28th, 1889, the Old Settlers met at the Fair Grounds for the purpose of constructing the log cabin. The logs and other materials had been donated exclusively by the Old Settlers. Two cabins were constructed. One was of unhewn logs, with the bark untouched, representative of pioneer building.

The annual reunion of 1890 was held on the 16th of August. Again Samuel Magill, then more than eighty-five years of age, read a long and original poem "in his own inimitable manner, making at times significant comments which greatly amused the audience." The principal address was given by L. B. Patterson. Again Philip Clark was present and brought to the platform that the audience might see "the man who was instrumental in having the capitol located at Iowa City."

The annual reunion of 1891 was held on August 19th. An Old Settlers poem, written by H. W. Lathrop, was read, in which was ingeniously interwoven the names of nearly all of the prominent settlers of the county.

The reunion of 1892, held on August 18th, appears to have been very largely attended, the literary program consisting of short talks by Old Settlers.

The reunion of 1893 was held on August 24th. Quite an extensive program was given, including a poem entitled "Pretty Rough," by Abel Beach.

The reunion of 1894 was held on August 17th, and the address was given by Judge S. H. Fairall, on "Early Court in Johnson County." The address contained a very interesting record of the bench and bar of the county.

The annual of the Association for the year 1895 was held on September 20th. At this meeting a necrologist report was made by G. R. Irish, and it is noteworthy that a similar report was made by him up to the time of his death, and that since his death the report has been made by his widow, Jessie Strawbridge Irish.

We have briefly traced the Association meetings during the first thirty years of the Johnson County Old Settlers Association. The present members of the Association are more or less familiar with the meetings of the recent years, and we will not refer in detail to the meetings of the last twenty-five years. The real pioneers of the county have practically all passed away.

CYRUS SANDERS

IN MEMORIAM

One of the most active and prominent pioneers of Johnson County was Cyrus Sanders, who passed away April 27, 1887. We find among the papers of the Association the original copy of the resolutions of respect prepared by a committee of the Association. We believe that these resolutions were never published, and the same follow:

Cyrus Sanders, who stood with and labored by our side in the early struggles of Johnson County and Iowa City, has gone from our midst in obedience to the summons, "Come up higher". Therefore we, his friends and companions, members of the Johnson County Old Settlers' Association, hereby express our high appreciation of his integrity as a man, his purity and faithfulness as a citizen, his loving kindness as a husband and father, and of his generous loyalty as a friend. We rejoice in his manly character. We rejoice that he lived and worked with us. We mourn his departure. We sympathize with his bereaved family to whom has come such bitter loss. We endeavor to bow in submission to the will of the Father and Friend of all.

IN MEMORY OF GEO. T. BORLAND

There are many pioneers who have passed away since our last meeting who deserve especial mention in these pages. Among those is George T. Borland, who was called to the Great Beyond October 15, 1918. He was President of the Association in 1911.

George Tupper Borland was born in the state of New York, May 27, 1853, and died in St. Paul, Minn., October 15, 1918.

Mr. Borland came west with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Borland, two brothers and four sisters, when he was six years of age.

The family will be remembered by the oldest residents of Johnson County as prominent land holders and representative citizens of those early days. They will be recalled, also, as a family, all of whose lives were interwoven in the pioneer history of Iowa City. One brother, Charles, occupied a chair in the faculty of S. U. I., during its initial years.

The deceased resided here since boyhood until recent years. He was a well known figure in Iowa City. A large circle of friends will miss the frequent visits of this kind and most generous man.

In 1880, Mr. Borland was united in marriage to Miss

Sara Smith, and to them was born one son, John J. The widow and son survive. Mr. Borland raised as his own son a nephew, Norval Ham, who also survives. A sister, Mrs. Katherine Borland Hayes, of Minneapolis, Minn., is now the only other remaining member of this well known family.

Mr. Borland was for many years a prominent member of the Elks' club, and the services were conducted by that organization.

The many friends attending the burial proved their respect for this genial man.

MARTHA HANBY WYMER

Mrs. George Wymer, a former resident of Iowa City, died at her home at Manson, Iowa, on July 21.

Martha Catherine Hanby, second daughter of James F. and Martha Ann Hanby, was born in Iowa City, December, 1848, where she spent her girlhood and young womanhood days. By her cheerfulness she endeared herself to both schoolmates and younger friends.

She was married to George C. Wymer, August, 1874, and helped by her love for her husband and his motherless children to watch over them and care for them as only a loving mother could do. Two sisters, Mrs. J. M. Wright, of Aledo, Illinois, and Mrs. G. V. Wright, of Iowa City, were at her bedside when death claimed his victim.

In early years Mrs. Wymer united with the Presbyterian church and was a faithful member until her removal to a new home. After moving to Manson she became a member of the Congregational church and retained her membership to the time of her death.

Mrs. Wymer was a faithful member of the order of Eastern Star, and was buried with honors by the order.

ANDREW CRAWFORD

The death of Andrew Crawford, one of the weatheriest and best known residents of the community, occurred at his farm adjoining Lone Tree, Wednesday evening, June 18, at nine thirty. His last illness was of only two weeks duration and he had reached the age of eighty-one years, one month and seven days.

For many years Mr. Crawford was an extensive importer of Clydesdale horses, and was a breeder of Short-Horn cattle. In years gone by he conducted some of the largest stock sales ever held in this community and was known by the big breeders in many states.

Andrew McConchie Crawford was born in Creetown, Scotland, May 11, 1838. He came to America with his parents when a baby, and in 1854 the family located in Johnson County, settling in Lincoln township, where they resided until 1867. When he was twenty-four years of age he settled on a large farm in Fremont township, which has since been his home. He was married on January 8, 1867, to Mrs. Jeanette Allison, a native of Ontario, Canada. Four children were born to them: William and Thomas, of Lone Tree, and Jessie (Klotz) and Walter, of West Liberty. Mrs. Crawford died in May, 1909. Mr. Crawford took for a second wife, Mary Steel Russell, a native of Scotland, to whom he was married in 1911. This wife and the four children mentioned above, survive.

FREDERICK T. CARL

Frederick T. Carl was born in LeGrange County, Ind., on April 18, 1837, and died January 31, 1919, aged eighty-one years, nine months and thirteen days. When but eighteen months of age, his parents moved to Cedar County, Iowa, settling on a farm near Tipton, where he grew to manhood. He was one of a family of ten children, one sister, Mrs. Newton Roberts, being the only one surviving.

Mr. Carl came to Johnson County in 1875, and settled on a farm just north of Lone Tree, where he resided for about twenty years. He then moved to Lone Tree, where he later entered the clothing business, which occupation he followed for about thirteen years, retiring from business in January, 1909.

Mr. Carl served as mayor of Lone Tree four terms and has held other offices of trust and honor during his long residence in this community. He was of a cheerful disposition and had a large circle of friends.

Besides the wife and eight children, Mr. Carl leaves twelve grandchildren and fifteen great grandchildren.

1524728

HARRIET TIDD STEVENS

Mrs. John D. Stevens died at her home in Scott township at 5:30 Saturday afternoon, March 8th, 1919, after an illness of two weeks.

Harriet Martha Tidd was born in Georgetown, Mass., October 14, 1842. In 1860 she came to Iowa City with her parents. She attended the State University and later taught for a number of years. In 1869 she was united in marriage to John D. Stevens, who preceded to the "Great Beyond," in 1906.

At an early age she united with the Congregational church and was a charter member of the Congregational church of this city. She was also a member of the Elder Daughters of the University and of the Scott Township Social Circle.

Mrs. Stevens is survived by one daughter, Adelaide, and two sons, Guy and Glenn, all of Scott township, and four grandchildren, Viola, Harriet, Helen and Genevieve Stevens; also three sisters and two brothers, Mrs. Ellen Knox, of Newton, Iowa, Mrs. Abbie Dennis, Miss Marantha Tidd and Lee Tidd, of Los Angeles, Cal., and Charles Tidd, of Gunnison, Col.

Mrs. Stevens was a woman of strong personality and great integrity of character and left an impression for good on all who knew her. She lived her Christianity day by day, most of all in her own family to whom she was a wonderful wife and mother. She lived with and for her children to the end. She will be sadly missed by those who were always sure of her loving care and counsel.

PIONEER REMINISCENCES

My father's farm, on which we settled in 1839, was in the northeastern corner of Johnson County, five miles east of Solon and three miles down the Cedar River from Ivanhoe, where the Dubuque road crosses the river. There was a store at Ivanhoe where my father did some of his trading, instead of going to Iowa City, a distance of sixteen miles.

In 1843 or 1844 father agreed to deliver to Mr. Fales—the proprietor of the store at Ivanhoe—fifty bushels of shelled corn in exchange for goods. We had no corn sheller (in fact, I do not think there were any in the county at that time) and the shelling of fifty bushels of corn by hand would be a tedious job. At this time I was about eleven or twelve years old and my brother, Gamaliel, eighteen months younger, and father proposed to us that if we would shell the corn he would give each of us a dollar, and suggested to us that instead of shelling it by hand it would be an easier and shorter job for us to pound it out with axes in the old canoe.

The canoe was one which had floated down the river in time of high water and lodged in our timber along the river and had been hauled up and placed in the driveway between the corn cribs and used as a feed trough at times when the teams could not be accommodated in our ordinary stable room. We accepted the proposition and went to work with a will. Just how long it took us to complete the job I do not remember, but we got it done so it was delivered to Mr. Fales so he could ship it down the river by the steam boat Piassau on her next trip.

The work was accomplished in this way: we would climb up into the crib immediately over the canoe and drop the ears down into the canoe until it was about half full and then get down and stand beside the canoe with each holding an axe with the handle held in a perpendicular position, pounding up and down in the manner of the churning process with an old fashioned churn. Then we would separate the cobs from the corn and measure up the corn, and then repeat the process until we got the entire fifty bushels shelled and sacked.

When the job was finished father said to us, "Mr. Fales has in his store some geographies and atlases for a dollar." He described to us what a mine of information they would be for us, about the earth and its inhabitants, its mountains, rivers, and lakes; its animals, birds, etc., etc., and said to us that he would pay each of us a dollar as he had promised or he would get each of us a geography and atlas instead of the dollar, if we preferred them. We decided to take the geographies and atlases, and were never sorry that we did so.

Neither of us had ever been to school, but our mother had taught us to read. These geographies and atlases were the first books we had ever possessed except Webster's old spelling book, and we enjoyed them immensely.

MATTHEW CAVANAGH.

NECROLOGICAL REPORT FROM AUGUST 20, 1918,
TO AUGUST 20, 1919

By MRS. G. R. IRISH

AUGUST, 1918	Age
3—Barry Jones		13—William Willard Felkner.... 30
6—Edwin C. Powers.....	53	15—Geo. T. Borland..... 65
7—Mrs. Rachel Hevern Parrott.	74	A. J. Roup..... 84
10—Aboli Haffner	68	17—Dr. John G. Mueller..... 48
11—Mrs. Catherine R. Greely....	91	Robert Spears
29—Wm. F. Rabenau.....	65	20—Mrs. King Thompson..... 26
31—Jos. Hervert	76	22—Christian Hohenschuh
SEPTEMBER, 1918	Age	53
1—Mrs. Mervin Simmons	72	26—John Maske
4—W. O. Edwards.....	71	27—Miss Florence McDowell.... 32
5—Stephen Jacobs	61	29—Mrs. Jno. Schuppert..... 45
5—Harry Stake	63	Mrs. Floyd Campbell, nee
9—Mrs. Wm. Hull nee Butter- baugh	44	Pauline Sueppel
13—Jno. Knebel	57	24
16—Adam Schuessler	93	Dr. Albert Roy Ritchey..... 39
26—Rev. David Reber.....	68	Frank Neuzel
28—Jacob J. Hieber.....	76	64
28—Mrs. V. W. Maresh.....	76	30—George Clark
Mrs. Mary O'Brien Speers..	73	31
29—Alfred Edwards, of Coralville	45
Vernon Palmer	23
30—Mrs. Viola Hiatt, wife of
Prof. Hiatt	57
OCTOBER, 1918	Age
4—Albert Boggs	27	NOVEMBER, 1918
8—Mrs. Rose Tanner Davis	41	Age
John C. Howe.....	92	1—Frank Sanders
12—Allen Barry	17	66
12—Mrs. Raymond Welch Slavata	27	2—Mrs. Kate L. Palmer.....
		79
		6—James Lacina
		77
		10—Henry Carse
		86
		V. B. Baumgardner..... 59
		11—Mabel Bowen Edwards..... 34
		11—Mrs. Francis Perhichek..... 87
		14—Mrs. Geo. Zenichek..... 82
		14—Mrs. Jos. Brysch..... 44
		16 Jos. Benda
		41
		25—Dan'l M. Schaffner..... 73
		25—Mrs. Christine Kessler..... 81
		28—Edward Casey
		66
		28—Chas. Stanton
		53
		28—Geo. Elmer Wagner..... 25
		29—Mrs. Hilda Nelson Wagner.. 24

DECEMBER, 1918		Age
2—Joseph Hess	24	9—Chas. Barrow	86
4—Miss Ida Greulich	55	Dan'l Gates	68
5—Jno. Porter	26	10—Mrs. Margaret Brean	81
6—Benj. Abbott	42	13—Mathew Cochran	75
7—David Stimmel	80	14—Mrs. Ellen Donahoe	81
10—Wm. Reed	70	Mrs. J. W. Swain	46
10—Jno. Carroll	77	21—Mrs. Mary Collins	75
10—Miss Mary Bradley	36	26—Mrs. Mary Meade	85
10—Miss Mary Bishop		27—Mrs. Mary J. Wicks	67
Harry Baumgardner	28	Fred T. Carl	82
13—Mrs. Elizabeth E. Riezen-		28—Alfred Wiese	35
stein	81
13—Miss Lorena May Eden	23
13—Mrs. Josephine Wieneke, nee
Roegle	58
13—Mrs. Mary Warner	47
13—Thomas A. Rogers	38
13—Richard M. Allen	75
Mrs. Wm. Moore, nee Em-mons	54
Dr. Wm. Hosford	55
15—Jonathan Ham	80
15—Mrs. Tobias Hochstetler Yoder	91
15—Miss Irene Fischer	24
Mrs. Helen P. Blowers	39
16—Mrs. Alice Means	55
Mrs. Emma Hart Rutan	75
James Graham	67
17—Mrs. Wm. Wrede	73
17—Mrs. Emma Pfeffer	62
17—Frank Fracker	65
16—Frank Kasper	25
16—Layton Stonebarger	29
16—Margaret Nolan Borts	68
JANUARY 1919		Age
2—James Barry	85
John Haisman	75
Dennis Carey	86
7—Timothy Bradley	60
8—Chas. Francis	75
9—Jacob Kessler	80
MARCH, 1919		Age
1—Mrs. Mary Jane Moore, nee
Fry			84
Stephen Fairchild			49
2—Mrs. Jas. Leighty			76
5—Chas. McCollister			68
Mrs. Jno. Chopek			79

6—Mrs. James C. Cochran, nee Doty	Age	77
9—Joseph Holubar	80
Mrs. Jno. D. Stevens	76
8—Mrs. Emma Lorack Mourning	49
Clay Brown	52
Frank Freeman	65
16—Mrs. Frank J. Stadler	42
Mrs. Wm. Summerhayes	67
Geo. B. Swafford	67
22—Enoch J. Drabava	76
Mrs. Mary Peters	81
19—Mrs. Julia Curtiss	65
22—Mrs. Glenn A. Kenderdine	42
Prof. Isaac Loos	63
18—David McCurdy Smith	77
26—Mrs. Anna King	69
26—Mrs. Sarah Alice Forbes	64
26—Mrs. Alline Owen	68
26—Timothy O'Conner	46
Mrs. Jno. Sibyl, nee Burk	36
28—Frank Stochil	25
Frank H. Pomeroy	54
Wm. Shonka	48
APRIL, 1919		Age
1—Mrs. Thos. Bevins	61
2—Chas. Bailey	67
3—Fanny Sullivan	55
John Bollei	87
Saml. Merritt Roberts	92
Thos. Ashdown	81
Wm. Hahn	85
F. M. Danner	80
13—Michael Schuppert	81
21—Mrs. Anna Maruby Dolezal	88
Mrs. Mary Englert Rummel-hart	55
Mrs. Mary Dewolf	72
Mrs. Henry Couch	58
21—Mrs. Josephus Wacek	80
James Solnar	76
22—Lee Whittaker	53
Mrs. Orley Truman	33
MAY, 1919		Age
6—E. L. Smith	97
19—Wesley Valenta	92
26—James Stratton	86
15—Mrs. Rush Emery, nee Hart	78
22—Peter Musser	78
Mrs. Ellen Arnold	75
21—Mrs. Geo. Bale, nee Morgan	83
23—John McCrory	74
Mrs. Geo. C. Lewis	75
12—Mrs. Wm. Gardner, nee Miller	62
7—Mrs. Mary V. Clark	73
Danl. Green	74
JUNE, 1919		Age
4—David Brant	69
7—Anna Dostal Stober	75
19—Andrew Crawford	80
19—Mrs. Bridget Kelly	86
Mrs. Elizabeth Barry	54
8—Robert Rate	38
13—Jas. Slaby	45
19—Andrew Corso	56
21—Mrs. Mary Nusvacil	71
22—George Knease	57
Miss Genevieve Francis Joy	32
23—Jno. Dolmage	66
23—George Moore	78
23—Jno. L. Etzel	75
25—Mrs. Mary Nora Cusack	60
29—Miss Carrie Roberts	18
23—Mrs. Minnie Marsh	72
JULY, 1919		Age
1—Mrs. Margaret Stevens Col-lins	76

2—Jno. Gimbel	83	25—Mrs. Lena Beener, nee Strit-
4—Abraham Lewis	82	matter
4—S. C. Walford.....	76	Henry M. Eicher.....
12—Joseph Koza	70	27—Miss Anna Lewis.....
13—Mrs. Wm. D. Stewart, nee		Mrs. Frank Greer, nee Mo-
Strang	51	rain
Chas. Wymer	29	Lafe Strahl
16—Mrs. Mary Memler.....	65	24—Albert J. Mallie
16—Miles Evans	65	21—Mrs. Geo. Wymer.....
16—Ezra Ebersole	78	AUGUST, 1919
16—Mrs. Wm. Warner.....	20	Age
16—Henry Long		3—Mrs. Geo. Reha, nee Meliker
16—Mrs. Jno. F. Latta.....	76	44
16—Martin Kelma	59	4—Calvin Williamson
		74
		5—Mrs. Susan Brown.....
		91

